Session II—Small Briefings: 3:30 PM — 4:45 PM

Tools to Build Stronger Unions Before & After Janus. . . . . BONDI

Labor has been preparing for this moment since Harris v Quinn started making its way through the courts in 2013. In that time we have fought to pass major legislation to increase member access, protect list privacy, and help better organize. This briefing will discuss the innovative new tools and tactics being used to withstand the coming attacks.

- Presenters: ■ Jennifer Beuthin, Orange County Employees Association
- Andy Kahn, California School Employees Association
  - Jason Rabinowitz, Teamsters 2010
  - Michelle Castro, SEIU State Council

New Laws: Retaliation, Raids and Forced Arbitration . . . . . TOFANELLI

In the face of a hostile federal government and the rise of the fractured workforce, unions must create and effectively use tools to protect workers rights. Learn about the new laws Labor passed last year to protect workers from workplace raids and retaliation and how to prevent forced arbitration that undermines workers' rights.

- Presenters: ■ David Huerta, SEIU USWW
- David Rosenfeld, Weinberg, Roger, Rosenfeld
